Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The appointment of board would be selected based on the skills matrix, experience and independency which are relevant and reflects accurately with the long-term strategic direction and needs of the Company with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is delegated by the Board in identifying, selecting and recommending suitable candidates for the appointment of Board and senior management, by taking into consideration the aspects of the candidates such as probity, personal integrity, reputation, competence and capabilities, as well as the existing board positions held by the directors to ensure the Board to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The Board acknowledges the importance of diverse Board and Senior Management. The Group strictly adhered to the practice of non-discrimination of any form, whether based on race, age, religion and gender throughout the organisation, which including the selection of Board members. The Group endeavours to meet the diversity at the Senior Management level and the composition of the Key Senior Management of the Group comprises a mixture of both genders. During the financial year, the Board has applied the criteria set in the Directors' Fit and Proper Policy such as character and integrity, experience and competence and time and commitment for the appointment of Mr Onn Kien Hoe, an Independent Non-Executive Director/Chairman.

Practice 5.10

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policy on gender diversity for the board and senior management.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board acknowledges the importance of boardroom diversity and takes cognisance of the recommendation of the MCCG to have female director. The Board established the Board Diversity Policy as set out in the Board Charter of the Company, which is available on the Company's website. However, the Board has yet to implement gender diversity policy and target, or has any immediate plans to implement such policy and target as the Board is of the view that gender should not be a basis of evaluation and that candidate should be sought after based on their level of experience and skill set as well as other qualities as stated above. Nevertheless, in the event of a vacancy in the Board, the Board, through the Nomination and Remuneration Committee has been tasked to consider the female representation when a vacancy arises and/or suitable candidates are identified. However, the appointment of a new Board member will not be guided solely by gender but will also take into account the skills-set, experience and knowledge of the candidate. The Company's prime responsibility in new appointments is always to select the best candidates available. Hence, the normal selection criteria based on an effective blend of competencies, skills, extensive experience and knowledge to strengthen the Board remains a priority. Please provide an alternative practice and explain how the alternative practice meets the intended outcome.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board undertakes annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the Board and its Committees. The Board evaluation comprises Board Assessment, Board Committees' Assessment, Individual Assessment and Assessment of Independence of Independent Directors. The assessment of the Board is based on specific criteria, covering areas such as the Board structure, Board operations, roles and responsibilities of the Board, the Board Committees and the Chairman's role and responsibilities. For Individual Assessment, the assessment criteria include contribution to interaction, quality of inputs, calibre and personality and understanding of role. The results of the assessment would form the basis of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee's ("NRC") recommendation to the Board for the re-election of Directors at the next Annual General Meeting ("AGM"). Based on the annual assessment conducted, the NRC was satisfied with the existing Board composition and concluded that each Director has the requisite competence, skills, time commitment and experience to serve on the Board and has sufficiently demonstrated their commitment to the Company in terms of time and participation during the year under review, and recommended to the Board the re-election of retiring Directors at the Company's forthcoming AGM. All assessments and evaluations carried out by the NRC in discharging its functions were properly documented.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nomination and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) and the Board will ensure the Company’s remuneration policy remains supportive to the Company’s corporate objectives and is aligned with the interest of shareholders, and that the remuneration packages of Directors and key Senior Management Officers are sufficiently attractive to attract and to retain persons of high calibre.
